

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments .....	II
Introduction .....	III
Project Background
Project Goals
How to Use This Report .....	IV
Composites
Statistical Significance
Case-Mix
Type of Presentations in This Report .....	V–VII
Summary Tables
Bar Graphs
Survey Results
How to Read the Bar Graphs
Executive Summary .....	VIII–IX
Study Populations
Sampling Methodology
Survey Process
Analysis
Summary Results .....	X–XII
Bar Charts for Healthy Options Adults - Core CAHPS Questions .....	1–32
Getting Care That Is Needed
Getting Care without Long Waits
How Well Doctors Communicate
Courtesy, Respect, and Helpfulness of Staff
Health Plan Customer Service and Paperwork
Family-Centered Care
Overall Satisfaction Ratings
Bar Charts for Healthy Options Children - Core CAHPS Questions .....	33–66
Getting Care That Is Needed
Getting Care without Long Waits
How Well Doctors Communicate
Courtesy, Respect, and Helpfulness of Staff
Health Plan Customer Service and Paperwork
Family-Centered Care
Overall Satisfaction Ratings
Bar Charts for Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP) Questions .....	67–73
Getting Care That Is Needed
Getting Care without Long Waits
How Well Doctors Communicate
Courtesy, Respect, and Helpfulness of Staff
Health Plan Customer Service and Paperwork
Family-Centered Care
Overall Satisfaction Ratings

Acknowledgements

---

Thanks to the members of the Consumer Assessment of Health Plans (CAHPS) survey workgroup who assisted with the development of the survey materials, the enrollment materials, and the stakeholder report.

From the Medical Assistance Administration (MAA):

- Liz Burris, Section Manager
- Marie Dixon, Secretary Administrative
- Selia Evans, Client Advocate
- Barbara Lantz, Nurse Consultant Advisor & Acting Section Manager
- Paula Larson, Office Assistant
- Brett Lawton, Program Manager
- Alice Lind, Section Manager
- Becky McAninch-Dake, CAHPS Coordinator
- Marty Weller, Nurse Consultant Advisor
- Nancy White, Word Processing Operator

We would like to thank:

PRO-West:

PRO-West, a health care quality improvement organization, coordinated the project, conducted the analysis, assisted in development of the enrollment materials, and developed this stakeholder report to disseminate the CAHPS survey results. For more information about PRO-West see www.pro-west.org.

National Research Corporation:

PRO-West coordinated with National Research Corporation, Inc., a survey research organization located in Lincoln, Nebraska, to collect the mail and telephone survey responses.

Sincerely,

Barbara Lantz
Acting Manager, Quality Management

Becky McAninch-Dake
CAHPS Coordinator